

Certificate Program in Learning Organizer for the Older Adults

Qualifications of eligible learners

People who can apply to study for a Certificate Program in Learning Organizer for the Older Adults are those who work in community older adult clubs or in the older adults schools, officers of the organizations which work for the older adults development such as the local administration organization, Non-formal and Informal Education Office (Office of Learning Encouragement), Department of older persons, members of community committee or local wisdom, and the older adults. The following qualifications are required:

1. Finished upper secondary education (Form 6 / Grade 12) or lower vocational education certificate or equivalent certificates which were accepted by Ministry of Education; or
2. Finished lower secondary education (Form 3 / Grade 9) or equivalent certificate which was accepted by Ministry of Education and has been working for not less than 5 years after finishing their education or having not less than 25 years of age on the date of beginning the semester or finished certificate programs which were accepted by the university; or
3. Finished higher vocational education certificate or equivalent certificate or associate degree or equivalence or bachelor's degree or higher degrees from educational institutions which were accepted by the university council.

Structure and details of the program*

1. Program structure	Subjects	Credits
specific subject group	5	30
For the whole program, students study not less than	5	30
2. program details
specific subject group: 5 subjects (30 credits)
26001 Nature and Development of the Older Adults
26002 Learning for Life of the Older Adults
26003 Learning Media for the Older Adults
26004 Learning Administration and Management of the Older Adults
26005 Case Study of Learning Activities for the Older Adults

Note * Program structure and details are subject to change. Nevertheless, prospective students may find information about updates and changes via the Press Releases/University website.

Last updated: 11-June-2024