

Master of Nursing Science Program in Community Nurse Practitioner

Plan A: Model A 2

(1) Program Structure

The program requires at least 42 credits comprising the following:

A. Core Courses	2 courses	(12 credits)
B. Area-specific Courses	2 courses	(12 credits)
C. Elective Courses	1 course	(6 credits)
D. Thesis		(12 credits)
E. Intensive Training for Graduate Professional Experience		(non-credited)

(2) Program Details

A. Core Courses 2 courses (12 credits)

51707 Nursing Research, Statistics and Nursing Informatics

89701 Health Policy and Health System, Leadership, Concepts and Theories in Nursing and Community Nurse Practitioner's Roles

B. Area-specific Courses 2 courses (12 credits)

89702 Advanced Health Assessment, Primary Medical Care and Community Nurse
Practitioner Practice I

89703 Epidemiology, Advanced Community Health Nursing and Community Nurse
Practitioner Practice II

C. Elective Courses 1 course (6 credits)

Select from the following courses:

89705 Health Promotion and Health Behavior Modification

89706 Nursing Care for Clients with Chronic Disease in Community

D. Thesis (12 credits)

89798 Thesis

E. Intensive Training for Graduate Professional Experience (non-credited)

89799 Graduate Professional Experience in Community Health Nurse Practitioner*

This is a practical experience course with intensive training.

This intensive training course is focused on practical experience and is evaluated performance
(equal to 6 credits but does not count towards accumulative grade point average)

Note: * Students must enroll in Graduate Professional Experience in Nursing in the last semester before graduation

Last updated: 26-September-2022