

the active

The first cropping system (S1) was a standard reference, designed to maximize financial returns, and emphasized the use of chemical herbicides for weed control. Mouldboard ploughing was carried out each year during summer, and herbicides were chosen following the recommendations of extension services.