

ANSWER KEY

5. The results indicated that the correlation had a significantly greater effect on the learning of early developmental errors than late developmental errors.