

Most teachers teach as they do because they believe that the methods adopted are effective for the purpose.