CRIME

Woman held for infanticide

A woman has been arrested and held for questioning over the death of a new-born boy whose body was found in a canal near the Southern Criminal Court. Police said Suban Khuchita, 24, was believed to be the mother. She was stopped while wandering outside the court yesterday morning. The woman refused to talk, only writing her full name and date of birth on a piece of paper for police. She was taken to Police Hospital for a check-up. Police said the baby had been dead for at least 24 hours when it was found face down in the canal. There were burn marks on the baby’s back, but it was thought he was dead before they were inflicted.

Witnesses said they saw Ms. Suban burning what was thought to be a doll because it did not cry out.

Taken from: Bangkok Post, July 24, 2003.
